Update on Games Fees

The Games Organising Committee is pleased to advise that there will be two different categories of fees for the XV Australian Deaf Games, offered for the first time ever.

Everyone will need to pay a Games Entry Fee as follows:

GAMES ENTRY FEE PRICE SCHEDULE
Early Bird Registration (on or before 31 August 2007)
Adult	$140.00
Youth* (17 or under as at 1 January 2008)	$115.00
Senior* (65 or over as at 1 January 2008)	$115.00
Late Registration (between 1 September 2007 and 9 November 2007)
Adult	$160.00
Youth* (17 or under as at 1 January 2008)	$135.00
Senior* (65 or over as at 1 January 2008)	$135.00
* Proof of age must be produced.

The Games Entry Fee will include the following:

- Ability to participate in the Games as a competitor / official / coach
- Entry to ALL sports as a spectator
- Admission to the Opening Ceremony
- An official Games Bag and some surprises in it!

All competitors, coaches and officials will need to pay a separate Sport Entry Fee.

Deaf Sports Australia is in the process of consulting with National Deaf Sport Organisations to confirm sport details and fees, and details will be announced shortly.

State Deaf Sports Organisations (SDSOs - branches of DSA) will be handling all registrations. Please send all registration forms and payments to your SDSO as listed below, not Deaf Sports Australia or the Games Organising Committee.

Games Entry forms will be available to download from www.austdeafgames.org.au shortly.
